SEARCHING FOR THE MUSIC

The CHIME Collection for
Chinese Music Research at the CATS Library
July 13, 2019 – April 4, 2020

“In fact nobody (myself included) knows a damn thing about Chinese music. We know a few things, but mostly we have no clue what we are listening to, or only in very rudimentary ways.”

Frank Kouwenhoven
CHIME Foundation

Being one of the most important libraries on Chinese music outside Asia, the CHIME Collection has recently become part of the Library of the Centre for Asian and Transcultural Studies (CATS). Begun in 1986 as private endeavor of the Dutch musicologists Antoinet Schimmelpenninck and Frank Kouwenhoven, the collection now includes many rare scores and recordings, as well as some 5,000 volumes of books and periodicals on all aspects of Chinese music.

We cordially invite you to explore selected highlights from this collection in the foyer of the CATS Library.
